OVERVIEW

The anthropogenic Climate Change is largely the result of Waste in Resource Extraction, Production and Consumption on the very large and on the very small level. Raising Awareness and Education for Families is required to make sure that Circular Economy will become adopted widely across Europe. Families are the core of any such change as the elemental pieces of society.

The Family Circle project's main objective is then to raise awareness and educate families across Europe to graduate the Circular Economy to a more coherent and impactful future.

OBJECTIVES

- To raise awareness and educate family member about Circular Economy issues (reuse, recycling etc.).
- To train people in order to adopt more efficient consuming habits in terms of cost and materials us.
- To provide an understanding of the socio-economic value of the Circular Economy such as job creation , reduction in scarce raw materials and natural resources, resource efficiency, and environmental protection.

ACTIVITIES

- Development of comic strips for children
- A Compendium of Web Quest Challenges for teenagers
- Circular Economy Workshop for parents and guardians
- In-service Training Programme and Handbook for adult educators
- Online Learning Platform – a bespoke, fully mobile, collaborative online learning environment
